Sounds good, let's talk Monday.

Just so we're all on same page, the Pavillion site (<http://www2.epa.gov/region8/pavillion>) update includes below. This would seem most logical place for it, and is consistent with how we've handled other letters, including letters to Gov Mead, over time.

Tim may have ideas, but I'm not aware of anyplace else this would logically live. Only other option is you could go in and edit the newsroom press release post itself and place a link under the state document. That would mean that people could only access it through the PR posted in the news room though...

What's New?

June 20, 2013

EPA has announced that it will be supporting the State of Wyoming in its further investigation of drinking water quality in the rural area east of Pavillion, Wyoming. While EPA stands behind its work and data, the agency recognizes the State of Wyoming's commitment to further investigation and efforts to provide clean water and does not plan to finalize or seek peer review of its draft Pavillion groundwater report released in December 2011.

The sampling data obtained throughout EPA's groundwater investigation will be considered in Wyoming's further investigation, and EPA will have the opportunity to provide input to the State of Wyoming and recommend third-party experts for the State's consideration. The State intends to conclude its investigation and release a final report by September 30, 2014.

Looks good – let's touch base Monday about posting this with our release or elsewhere. Think something like that makes more sense.

I just removed the letter. Thanks for calling, as well—as you said, Bo, we'll address the letter on Monday.

All,

Please hold. Can we take this off for now? Need to find a better place for it.

Thanks, everyone, for your fast responses! The updated June 20, 2013 "What's New" item has now been published. Is there anything I should change?

<http://www2.epa.gov/region8/pavillion> (click the link on the governor's letter, as well, and let me know if you'd like anything changed on that page)

Thanks,

Yup, I'll have it as the final of three bullets. Does that sound good? It'll be more spelled out, but it would basically look like this:

· Press release

- State investigation document
- Letter from Bob P to Governor Mead

Is that OK?

Thanks,

Tim

The venerable webmaster is leaving in 10 minutes, so we'll need a green light asap if this is to go live today. Thanks!

I suggest we place as a link under the press release, state investigation document. Good?
